

An Activator for Perspective

---

Mad-Libs

Print out the story, An Interesting Adventure, for you and a friend or family member. Both of you complete the story by filling in the blank spaces with the right kinds of words. When you're done, read the story aloud and see how much a different perspective can change a single adventure.

Adjective: a word that describes something (big, scary, sharp, quiet)

Noun: a person, place or thing (brother, school, table)

An Interesting Adventure

When I look up at the _____ sky, all I can see are stars. They are all different colors, (adjective)

but the biggest star is _____. I think I'll name it _____.
(color) (name)

Even though the weather is very _____, I'm nice and cozy in my tent. I have a (weather description)

big cup of _____ to eat and my fuzzy _____ socks to keep me (food) (color)

comfortable. Outside, in the darkness, I think I can hear the sound of the _____.
(animal)

They are a little bit _____ and they make me feel _____, (adjective) (feeling or emotion)

but I'm safe in my tent. In the morning, we are going for a _____ hike in the (adjective)

----- mountain. I've heard the trees are bigger than (adjective)

----- and the water smells like ----- (animal) (something stinky)

Anyway, I'm hoping to find the secret cave of the lost ----- (noun)

I've heard stories about hidden treasures like ----- and (nouns)

----- But I know never to touch treasure, should I find it, because if I (nouns)

do I will be cursed forever and have to live with an itchy ----- for the (body part)

rest of my life! Wish me luck!

Your Brave Wilderness Explorer,

-----
(adjective) (your name)

P.S.

If I don't make it back from the ----- cave, you can have all of my (scary adjective)

-----
(nouns)